The Proprietors of this Establishment warrant their seeds to be FRESH and GENUINE. The manufactured Agricultural Implements they guarantee to be made in a style inferior to none in the United States; and hope that their untiring assiduity to accommodate their friends, will cause them to continue the patronage so liberally extended towards their predecessors, Messrs. Sinclair & Moore, the former proprietors of this Establishment.

To insure success to the planter, all seeds of doubtful character will be fully tested in hot beds prepared for the purpose, and small packages of Garden Seeds will have the name of contents, and directions for planting, distinctly marked on each parcel.

DIRECTIONS.—The Dahlia requires a rich, well-worked light soil, kept clear of weeds; plant the crown of the root about two inches below the surface of the ground. Stake them with handsome rods, and tie up the branches as they advance in height. The root should be taken up after the flower stock is killed by the frost, dry them a few days, and pack in dry sand, moss, or cotton, in a warm, dry vegetable cellar. The roots can be packed to be sent with perfect safety to any part of the United States.

| No. 0. A one-horse cultivating plough, eight inches wide, nearly the same length as the smaller one, but has a bolder mould board, and better adapted to sandy lands. The shares and heels of these two sizes suit each other | 5 50   |

	PRICE.
No. 1. A light two-horse plough . . . . .	$ 6 50
No. 2. A two-horse plough, 9 inches wide . . . . .	7 00
No. 3. A two-horse flushing plough . . . . .	8 00
No. 4. A heavy three-horse plough with sword-colter	12 50

This PLOUGH possesses the advantage of having a moveable steel point, from fifteen to twenty-four inches long, which can be reversed, as a bevel is formed by wearing, and advanced as it becomes shorter, so as to bring into actual wear from twelve to eighteen inches of a solid wrought bar; by thus changing the point, the share continues to perform its work well until worn off nearly up to the mould board; whereas, without this moveable point, shares are generally rendered useless when only half-worn.

This valuable principle may be applied to any shape of mould board.

BEACH'S SELF-SHARPENING.

7 " A light one-horse corn plough . . . . .	5 50
8 " A light two-horse plough . . . . .	6 50
9 " A two-horse plough . . . . .	7 50

The 'Beach' Plough is made with reversing steel or cast iron points similar to 'Winans.' The share of this Plough is in form, a right angle, and so constructed that either of the three edges can be used at pleasure, can also be turned on the opposite side when the edges become dull, thus forming a three edged self-sharpening share.
